About State Senator Vincent Hughes

Pennsylvania State Senator Vincent Hughes is a leading Democratic voice on local, state, and national issues. In his time as an elected official, he has fought tirelessly for investments and action in education, affordable housing, healthcare, violence prevention programs, and mental health.

Senator Hughes represents the 7th Senatorial District, which includes sections of Philadelphia and Montgomery counties. He stays active in all areas of the district and makes sure to stay connected to community groups, neighbors, and other individuals who are driving positive change in the district.

In Harrisburg, Senator Hughes works at the Pennsylvania State Capitol to help pass laws and decide how Pennsylvania will spend its budget. Senator Hughes is the Democratic Chairman of the Senate Appropriations Committee which means he is the Democratic leader for discussions and negotiations for Pennsylvania's budget. He fights hard every year to make sure Pennsylvania is distributing enough money to:

- Address mental health challenges for young people
- Expand healthcare for low-income workers
- Fix old and decaying schools
- Implement solutions to gun violence
- Increase affordable housing options for Pennsylvanians
- Raise the minimum wage
- Rebuild small businesses and neighborhoods
